Wednesday Lunches Some big changes coming to our lunches. Those of you who attend lunches fairly regularly will know that the Mess considered laying off the bartender, Steve, and using one of the officers as a volunteer bartender to reduce costs. They are not going to do that. Instead, the price of the lunches will be raised to $20, effective Oct 12, and most of the increase will be used to cover the bartender's wages. At the moment, all the lunch ticket money goes to Mrs Lum and these days, many people have cut back on alcohol, especially if they are driving, so bar profit has decreased to the point where it doesn't even cover basic expenses. On top of that, the Mess guarantees Mrs Lum 25 diners and, if we drop below that number, the Mess must make up the difference. $20 is still a very reasonable price for the excellent meal being served. Anybody who has attended will attest to the fact that the quality of the meal is top notch and you get soup, salad, main course, dessert, cheese and crackers and coffee/tea for that $20 – you won't find a better meal or deal anywhere else in town. Jacket and tie required, equivalent for ladies.

Navy lunch – 26 Oct: Change of Speaker. Guest Speaker Commander (ret'd) King Wan will give a talk on the "75th Anniversary of The Battle of Hong Kong"

Upcoming events – Mark your calendars Details to follow in future editions

- Nov 11 - Remembrance Day
- Dec 3 - St Barbara's Day Special Guest night. See invitation at end of newsletter
- Dec 11 - Christmas Tea
- Jan 1 - New Year's Levée
- Feb 11 - Regimental reunion dinner

World War 2 - 1941

John Thompson Strategic analyst quotes from his book "Spirit Over Steel"

Oct 19th: Stalin says that he is staying in Moscow – but much of his government has already scampered off.

Oct 20th: The German commandant in Nantes is shot by the French Resistance, and so 50 hostages are likewise shot. The Germans capture Stalino (Donetsk on post-Soviet maps).

Oct 21st: The Romanian Army begins the massacre of thousands of Jews in Odessa. As shooting them on an individual basis was taking too long, 20-25,000 were crammed into four large warehouses which were then set on fire. Between mass murder in the city and deportations, as well as other outrages nearby, the exact toll cannot easily be determined but over the new few weeks, over 100,000 Jews will die.

Oct 23rd: The Soviet strategic command is rearranged yet again as they struggle to deal with the German advance. Zhukov is given overall command in the North and Timoshenko in the South. Guderian's Panzer Army has now crossed over the Zusha river and is heading north once more.

Oct 24th: Kharkov falls to German forces.

Oct 25th: As tensions with Japan rise, the British decide to reinforce their presence and HMS Prince of Wales departs for the Far East.

From Vimy to Juno

Don Foster

On September 27 2016, Ralph Webb walked the beach where his father, Lt Col Roland H Webb DSO, Commanding Officer of the 12th Field Regiment RCA, landed on D-Day, June 6, 1944. This was Ralph's first visit to Juno Beach and The Juno Beach Centre, Canada's Second World War museum and cultural centre located in Normandy, France. The Centre pays homage to the 45,000 Canadians who lost their lives during the War, of which 5,500 were killed during the Battle of Normandy and 359 on D-Day. The Centre was opened in 2003 by veterans and volunteers with a vision to create a permanent memorial to all Canadians who served during the Second World War. Its mandate is to preserve this legacy for future generations through education and remembrance.

Ralph Webb's first visit to Juno Beach Centre, standing beside the Kiosk where his father has a plaque.

I first met Ralph at the Officers' Mess of the 15th Field Artillery Regiment RCA at Bessborough Armoury in Vancouver. We were introduced as fellow "sons of gunners" but as soon as I found out Ralph's father had been the Commanding Officer of my father's Regiment; a special bond was quick to follow. Ralph shared with me that he always planned to visit Juno Beach someday to see the famous beach where the Canadians breached the vaunted Atlantic wall. Well, it just happened that I was planning a trip to Vimy and The Juno Beach Centre with a group of close friends the following year and he signed up on the spot. Ralph was a welcome addition to our tour and quickly distinguished himself as group photographer.

It is difficult to describe the emotion that I saw on the faces of our group of eight Canadians when they exited the video “They walk with you” at the Juno Beach Centre, but it was the first time I had seen many of my friends with a tear in their eye. When you appreciate the great sacrifice and sense of responsibility these men shared on that beach 72 years ago, it is no wonder so many Canadians have put visiting Juno Beach high on their bucket list.

On Dec. 16 2016 the ‘From Vimy to Juno’ Travelling Exhibit will be on display for a special reception at the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada newly renovated armoury on Burrard Street in Vancouver. The ‘From Vimy to Juno’ Travelling Exhibit provides an opportunity for Canadians of all ages to learn about Canada’s role in the First and Second World Wars. It draws parallels between the two wars and examines Canada as a nation from 1914 to 1945. This exhibit was developed by the Juno Beach Centre in partnership with the Vimy Foundation, made possible through the generous support of the Department of Canadian Heritage.

I encourage you to register for this special reception and start making your own plans for visiting both Vimy and the Juno Beach Centre in France. (See poster at end of newsletter)

GDLS Unveils Demonstrator for New Army Light Tank

Daniel Wasserbly, Washington, DC - IHS Jane's Defence Weekly 04 October 2016

General Dynamics Land Systems (GDLS) on 3 October unveiled a medium-weight tracked vehicle demonstrator called the Griffin that meshes elements of the turret and 120 mm cannon from the company's M1A1/M1A2 Abrams main battle tank with its Ajax Scout Specialist Vehicle.

GDLS' Griffin technology demonstrator vehicle was unveiled on 3 October. (IHS/Dan Wasserbly)

In fiscal year 2017 the US army requested 9.678 million to begin a new-start programme called Mobile Protected Firepower (MPF): a vehicle meant to quickly deploy with relatively low logistics demand, but enough protection and firepower to help ensure an infantry brigade combat team's freedom of action. The Griffin is meant as a "conversation starter with the army", which could then come back to GDLS with suggestions for changes, Mike Peck, GDLS' head of business development, told IHS Jane's at the annual Association of the US Army (AUSA) symposium.

Dave Crocker, GDLS' vice-president for engineering and development, told IHS Jane's that the Abrams uses a unique variant of Rheinmetall's L44 smoothbore gun, designated the M256 and manufactured at Watervliet Arsenal, but the Griffin demonstrator is fitted with the 120 mm XM360 gun that was developed for the erstwhile Future Combat Systems programme. It can also integrate a 105 mm M58 gun. Griffin's turret is based on the Abrams SEP2 turret, but is lighter weight and uses aluminium construction. It is mated to the Ajax steel chassis and the demonstrator uses the Ajax powerpack and overall components, which are manufactured in Spain, but GDLS would seek US production if it was chosen to build something based on Griffin for the US Army.

Peck said the company could respond to army feedback with a revised platform within about 9-12 months. GDLS representatives said the Griffin configuration at AUSA weighs about 28 tonnes - two could fit on a Boeing C-17 Globemaster III - but explosive reactive armour or active protection systems could be added for a few extra tonnes.

All Sea Kings to be Retired by December 2018

RCAF unsure about disposal of helicopters at this point

The retirement of the RCAF's 28 Sea King helicopters is ongoing and on schedule to conclude by December 2018, according to the Department of National Defence. To date, six aircraft have been removed from flying status, department spokeswoman Ashley Lemire told Defence Watch. "Operational employment of the Cyclone will begin in 2018, ahead of final Sea King retirement, utilizing the Block 1 (Capability Release 1.1 and 1.2) aircraft version," she added. And what will or could become of the 28 Sea Kings? Lemire said the aircraft could be sold, transferred, donated, destroyed or retained for historical purposes. But at this point the RCAF doesn't have a exact plan – it's being worked on but I would expect at least some will be retained for museums and static displays on bases.

Vancouver Artillery Association Remembrance Day Activities

The Vancouver Artillery Association has several events planned for November.

Remembrance Day

The 15th Field Artillery Regiment RCA will be firing the salute from Crab Park at Portside close to downtown Vancouver at 1100 hours on Friday 11th of November 2016. It is the intent of the Vancouver Artillery Association to move the Field Artillery Tractor (FAT), Limber and 25 Pounder to that location in the morning. The Association Gun Detachment should advise Bob Mugford if they are available at 0800 hrs 11 November for the move.

bob.mugford@outlook.com

The Commanding Officer has granted permission for former members of the Regiment to form up on parade behind the guns, with the Regiment and Cadets. The Regiment will form up at 1030 hrs. Dress is blue Regimental blazers with grey pants and berets. It is understood that not all members own "Blues and Greys" so the dress policy will certainly be extremely lenient. It's more important that you're on parade than dressed properly! Drop Leon Jensen an email at LeonJ1@hotmail.com if you plan to attend. The Messes will be opened after the Ceremony for recounting of historic deeds and tall tales.

Yorke Island Coastal Artillery History Meeting

The Vancouver Artillery Association will be hosting a Yorke Island Coastal Artillery History Meeting on Saturday 12 November 2016 at 1300 hours in the Officers' Mess, Bessborough Armoury, 2025 West 11th Avenue, Vancouver. The intent of the meeting is to bring attract individuals or groups with an interest in BC's Coastal Artillery history with a specific focus on Yorke Island. The session will mostly concentrate on Yorke Island photographs in order to build a comprehensive history of the island's preparation in World War II.

We are looking for individuals that would be interested in examining the photos to develop an historic timeline of construction. In addition, we are working on identifying the members that served on Yorke Island and their career in the Canadian Army. We are hoping to attract descendants of many of those members that may have photographs and information in their family albums that they may wish to share. Scanners will be available to record that information. Interested? Contact Leon Jensen at leonj1@hotmail.com if you plan to attend.

Vancouver Artillery Association Yearbook Updates

The following pages were updated over the last week. Were you in attendance at any of the events? Did we get the information correct? Have you got a story that you might wish to share? Some additional photographs? Contact Leon Jensen at LeonJ1@hotmail.com

Who is it?

Last Week: This picture was taken early in WW2 and shows the guard detail at Bessborough Armoury. They are formed up in front of one of the two German trophy guns mounted in front of the armoury at that time. (They were soon scrapped to aid the war effort.) In a full sized photo, you can see the distinctive zig zag stripping that runs along the Armoury wall and the narrow slit window on the east side corner, so this is the gun that was located at the east end of the Armoury. The men are carrying Ross rifles. When the US entered WW1 Canada gave them a batch of Ross rifles and, at the start of WW2, the US gave them back. They were used for home defense only, and only until sufficient numbers of Lee Enfields were available.

This Week: Well, this week's quiz is one for the Brylcreem boys (and girls, too). For those of you not in the know regarding archaic slang, that refers to the lads of the air element (once again properly known as the RCAF). It is possible that Brylcreem (a little dab'll do ya) was used to keep their hair slick in the airstream of their ponderous "Gallipoli" bombers of the 1920s, or it was used to glue their wedge caps on at gravity-defying angles. Who knows?

What else we, land-bound chaps that we are, don't know is the identity of the flying machines in this week's photo, which was found in the album of an otherwise respectable gunner. Of course, during the war and afterwards, there were innumerable anti-aircraft units in the Canadian Army, one of which, the 43 Heavy (later Medium) AA amalgamated with 15th Field to form the modern unit we see today. However, this photo predates the war, we think.

So, can you of an aeronautical bent help us identify at least the main aeroplane in the photo? All we know is that said shot was taken on Sea Island, site of today's YVR. If you ID the craft on the right, you get a silver star, and if you can actually identify the one on the left, or that in the background, a gold star is stuck on your homework. # Fifth (BC) Artillery Regiment RCA Foundation luncheon 4 Nov 2016

Vimy 2017 Project

Friday 4 Nov 2016

Bay Street Armoury

Attached is an invitation to attend the 4 Nov 2016 fundraising luncheon in support of the Fifth (BC) Artillery Regiment RCA Foundation. The buffet luncheon will be in the Currie Room of the Bay Street Armoury at 1200h. The Officers' Mess will open at 1130h.

The fundraising focus of this luncheon will be our "Vimy 2017 Project". This Project is part of a Canada-wide Gunner initiative as described below.

In 2014 BGen (Ret'd) Ernie Beno (Honorary Colonel of 7th Toronto Field Artillery Regiment RCA) recognized that within the RCA Family there is great interest in a Vimy Tour in 2017, to include serving members as well as retired Gunners. The tour will include Vimy, Normandy, Dieppe and other Canadian Army sites and will take place from 1 April to 10 April 2017.

Our Fifth (BC) Foundation fully supports this Project and our aim is to fund the participation of up to five serving members of the 5th in 2017. The luncheon on Friday, 4 Nov, is one of several fundraising events and your participation and support is encouraged.

The guest speaker at our 4 November luncheon will be Alan McLeod; a respected and experienced lecturer. His topic will be "Canada's War Memorials – Remembering the Fallen".

The cost of the luncheon event is $75 per person and each participant will receive a $50 charitable tax receipt from the 5th (BC) Artillery Regiment RCA Foundation. Military and civilian guests are all welcome.

The Foundation also offers a group/corporate ticket at $350. The $350 includes a group of five as well as a participant from the 5th. A charitable receipt of $200 will be provided.

This is one of several fundraising priorities of the Foundation. Our five current priorities are:

- Vimy 2017 Project (Gunners to Vimy)
- Support to our Cadet Corps
- Scholarships and/or bursaries
- Band uniforms and accoutrements
- Support to unit activities
