GENERAL ORDERS.

1915.

HEADQUARTERS,

OTTAWA, 15th August, 1915.

INSTRUCTIONS, REGULATIONS, ETC.

IMPROPER DISPOSAL OF CLOTHING, NECESSARIES and EQUIPMENT.

Cases having occurred of the illicit disposal of G.O. 102 articles of clothing, necessaries and equipment, it is 1915. notified that such articles, after issue to the soldier, remain the property of the Government. Commanding officers will take effective measures to prevent such illegal traffic and will deal severely with soldiers under their command who sell, or otherwise make away with, articles of clothing or other Government property in their charge. They will immediately report to the police authorities all such cases that may come to their notice with a view to taking proceedings under Section 156 of the Army Act, against the buyers or otherwise receivers of such articles.

(H.Q. 96-1-140.)

ESTABLISHMENTS, 1914-1915.—AMENDMENTS.

With reference to General Order No. 87, 1914, the G.O. 103 following amendments are authorized :— 1915.

WAR OFFICE,

23rd June, 1915.

His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the grant of the Victoria Cross to the under-mentioned officer and man for most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty:—

Captain Francis Alexander Caron Scrimger, Canadian Army Medical Service, Medical Officer, 14th Battalion Royal Montreal Regiment.

On the afternoon of the 25th April, 1915, in the neighborhood of Ypres, when in charge of an advanced dressing station in some farm buildings, which were being heavily shelled by the enemy, he directed under heavy fire the removal of the wounded, and he himself carried a severely wounded officer out of a stable in search of a place of greater safety. When he was unable alone to carry this officer further, he remained with him under fire till help could be obtained.

During the very heavy fighting between 22nd and 25th April, Captain Scrimger displayed continuously day and night the greatest devotion to his duty among the wounded at the front.

No. 1539. Colour-Sergeant Frederick William Hall, 8th Canadian Battalion.

On 24th April, 1915, in the neighbourhood of Ypres when a wounded man was lying some fifteen yards from the trench called for help, Company Sergeant Major Hall endeavoured to reach him in the face of a very heavy enfilade fire which was being poured in by the enemy. The first attempt failed, and a non-commissioned officer and private soldier who were attempting to give assistance were both wounded. Company-Sergeant-Major Hall then made a second most gallant attempt, and was in the act of lifting up the wounded man when he fell mortally wounded in the head.

WAR OFFICE, 23rd June, 1915.

His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned honours and rewards for distinguished service in the field with effect from 3rd June, 1915, inclusive :—

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned non-commissioned officers and men, for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force in France and Flanders :—

Regi-mental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which Commended.
5615	Private	Adams, H. M.	Canadian Signal Company.	For conspicuous gallantry from 22nd to 25th April, 1915, when telephone lines were down, in carrying orders under heavy shell and rifle fire to the St. Julien-Ypres salient.
9067	Acting Sergt..	Adamson, S. L.	3rd Canadian Battalion.	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty near St. Julien from 23rd to 26th April, 1915. This non-commissioned Officer rendered valuable assistance to the Medical officer during the engagement, going from one station to another, often under heavy rifle fire, and rendering medical assistance to the wounded on the field.
19616	Lc. Corporal..	Allan, G. W.	10th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on the night of 23-24th April, 1915, when he fought first one machine gun and then a second, until both were put out of action and their teams either killed or wounded, he then continued to fire with his rifle until killed at his post.
22844	Private.	Batchelor, C. W.	2nd Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at St. Julien, on 23rd April, 1915, in bringing in numerous wounded men under heavy fire.
22846	Private.	Birdseye, R. W.	2nd Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 23rd April, 1915, in carrying messages under heavy fire from one trench to another; also for bringing in wounded under fire.

19491	Private.....	Bloxham, C. H....	10th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On the 24th April, 1915, he rescued a wounded comrade and carried him for one mile into safety whilst exposed to heavy shell fire; also on this day he assisted in gathering up and re-forming stragglers under heavy fire. On the night of the 25-26th April, while near Gravenstafel Cross-roads, he accompanied an officer to Brigade Headquarters, and, finding it in the hands of the enemy, he escaped under heavy fire.
32713	Sergeant.....	Brown, T. M....	No. 1 Field Ambulance, Canadian Army Medical Corps.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on the night of 23-24th April, 1915. Being cut off from the collecting station by shell fire, he remained with the wounded near the trenches all day, and then brought all of them in safety to the station on the night of 24th April.

5077	Lance-Corporal.	Casement, R. J....	1st Field Company Canadian Engineers.	For conspicuous gallantry near Ypres on night of 28th-29th April, 1915, in going to an officer who lay wounded near the German line, accompanied by three others, and carrying him in on a stretcher, under a heavy shell and rifle fire. Lance-Corporal Casement has also done excellent work in the construction of a bridge over the Yser and in protection of the canal bridges during operations 22nd April to 5th May, 1915.
5646	Corporal.....	Castles, E.....	Canadian Signal Company.	For conspicuous gallantry near Ypres from 22nd to 28th April, 1915, in repairing telegraph and telephone lines under heavy shell fire, and maintaining communication.
48009	Sergeant-Major (formerly Quartermaster-Sergeant Royal Artillery.)	Clifton, A. E.....	Canadian Army Medical Corps.	For conspicuous gallantry, coolness and devotion to duty at Veamertinghe on 27th April, 1915, in assisting to move wounded from the church to a place of safety whilst under fire.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which Commended.
13357	Private.....	Cowell, J. D.....	5th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Fortuin during 24th to 26th April, 1915, in continually carrying messages under a very heavy shell fire.
46799	Private. . . .	Danson, H.....	13th Canadian Battalion	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty at St. Julien from 22nd to 25th April, 1915, in carrying orders, when the telephone wires were down, under very heavy shell and rifle fire.
28874	Sergeant.....	Dougall, J.....	16th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Julien on night of 22nd-23rd April, 1915. During an attack on a wood, this non-commissioned officer placed himself at the head of a party of men belonging to another battalion who had no officer or leader with them, and cleared a farm beyond the wood of greatly superior numbers of the enemy.
16420	Sergeant.....	Dryden, W. H....	7th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Keerselaere, on 23rd April, 1915, in going to the assistance of Lieutenant-Colonel Hart-McHarg, who was lying wounded between our own and the German lines.
23262	Private.....	Duncan, W.....	Canadian Signal Company.	For conspicuous gallantry from 22nd-25th April, 1915, when telephone lines were down, in carrying orders under heavy shell and rifle fire, to the St. Julien-Ypres Salient.
7980	Private.....	Highstone, A. S..	2nd Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Julien on 24th April, 1915, in bringing in wounded under heavy fire, and for his personal bravery under fire.

9862	Sergeant.....	Ives, P.....	3rd Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Julien from 23rd to 25th April, 1915, when returning from reconnaissance work, he brought to safety several wounded men. His general conduct and confidence have set a fine example to others.
21855	Private.....	Joslyn, R. W.....	5th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty, while employed as battalion runner, in carrying despatches under fire.
10857	Sergeant.....	Kaye, A. W.....	4th Canadian Battalion.	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty at Pilckem Ridge from 23rd to 26th April, 1915, in dressing and assisting the wounded throughout the action.
5696	Corporal.....	Kennedy, B. E....	Canadian Signal Company.	For conspicuous gallantry in carrying messages between Brielen, Ypres, St. Jean Weiltje and St. Julien. During the whole action this road was being continuously shelled and he ran a great risk while performing his duty.
29519	Sergeant.....	Lunn, C.....	16th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion near St. Julien on the morning of 23rd April, 1915, following a night attack, in twice going out under fire and dressing a man who was badly wounded in the arm and covering him with a blanket.
28776	Private.....	MacArtair, A.....	Canadian Signal Company.	For conspicuous gallantry on 22nd to 25th April, 1915, when telephone wires were down, in carrying orders, under heavy shell and rifle fire, to St. Julien-Ypres Salient.
30004	Sergeant..	MacDonald, J....	Canadian Divisional Train.	For conspicuous ability and coolness while employed in carrying rations to the troops, and in picking up wounded and bringing them back to dressing stations under heavy shell fire.
26354	Private.....	Mallette, J. R....	14th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at St. Julien, although painfully wounded himself, in rescuing a wounded comrade under heavy fire, carrying him back a considerable distance.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which Commended.
8569	Private.....	McGuire, T.....	2nd Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in carrying despatches under fire.
16576	Private.....	Mullins, T. M ...	7th Canadian Battalion.	For gallant conduct and resource near Gravenstafel on 17th April, 1915, in assisting an officer to extinguish a lighted torch which had fallen in an open box of fused bombs.
30115	Driver.....	Pate, S. A.....	Canadian Divisional Train.	For conspicuous ability and coolness while employed in carrying rations to the troops, and in picking up wounded and bringing them back to dressing stations under heavy shell fire.
16246	Sergeant.....	Pearless, H. W....	7th Canadian Battalion.	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty near Keerselaere on 24th April, 1915, in operating his machine gun on the enveloped right flank of his Battalion until he and his gun were blown up.
26648	Company-Sergeant-Major (now Lieutenant).	Pierce, C. B.....	14th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at St. Julien, in going to the assistance of a man who, while on patrol, had been wounded by Germans whom he had encountered. Company-Sergeant-Major Price went out, and shooting the two Germans who had wounded him, brought in the man, undoubtedly saving his life. His conduct all through the action was one of the most meritorious and self-sacrificing kind.
21190	Private.....	Quigley, H. S. ...	2nd Infantry Brigade Staff, Canadian Contingent.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty while acting as linesman during the action of 22nd to 27th April, 1915, during which time he repaired at least 100 breaks under heavy shell fire. Private Quigley also assisted a wounded officer to a place of safety. He was himself wounded when repairing a line under fire on 2nd May.

19910	Corporal.....	Ross, T. O.....	10th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on the night of 24-25th April, 1915, in carrying to safety three wounded men in succession under heavy machine gun and rifle fire.
19637	Corporal.....	Shultz, S.....	10th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion while acting as medical orderly on the night of 24th-25th April, 1915, when he remained at the dressing station after it had been practically blown to pieces, and took charge until every wounded man had been removed, displaying great courage throughout.
33191	Private.....	Turner, F.....	Canadian Army Medical Corps.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Weiltje on 24th April, 1915, when attending to wounded. When the dressing station had been heavily shelled, he carried his wounded to a neighbouring ditch and continued to tend them under heavy shell fire for the greater part of the day, remaining until all had been removed.
6972	Lance-Corporal.	Wakelin, F. B....	1st Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry at Pilckem Ridge on the 23rd April, 1915, in taking his platoon up into the firing line after all the senior non-commissioned officers had been killed or wounded, under heavy shell and rifle fire.
508	Private.....	Walters, H.	8th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 24th April, 1915, although wounded in the head and in the thumb, in remaining at the parapet and using his rifle against attack.
13204	Private.....	White, G. A.....	5th Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in volunteering for, and carrying on, the Medical Officer's work after that officer was missing. During 26th April, to 5th May, 1915, Private White was continuously attending to wounded under fire.
7097	Lance-Corporal.	Whitla, W.	1st Canadian Battalion.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Pilckem Ridge, on 23rd April, 1915, in carrying Captain Lockhart to cover when wounded, under heavy artillery and rifle fire.
